

“Magnetic energy has a beneficial effect on blood circulation, lymph flow, hormone production, nerves and muscles.” – Dr. Ulrich Warnke, MD

Why People Who Sleep On The Revolutionary Magnetek™ Mattress Pad Have Virtually ZERO Body Pain!

Arthritis, neck pain, back, shoulder, agonizing limb and joint inflammation, fibromyalgia, circulation problems, stress, migraines, insomnia, fatigue . . . ALL MELT AWAY . . . ALL QUICKLY RELIEVED thanks to nature’s most natural therapy — magnetic energy!

FACT: Magnet therapy can increase blood flow through the capillaries by as much as 400%. Improved circulation stimulates body healing, less pain!

■ WHEN YOU SLEEP WITH A REVOLUTIONARY MAGNETEK™ MATTRESS PAD under your fitted sheet, not only are you going to experience a deep, restful night of peaceful slumber. But more than that — the miracle waiting for you is nothing short of a total body rejuvenation! Hips, back, painful sciatica, cramps, sore muscles, restless leg syndrome, inflamed joints and nerves, poor circulation, osteo and rheumatoid arthritis, stress, headaches. Prepare to be blessed with significant, lasting relief. Our specially developed Magnetek™ Mattress Pad is fitted with 49 ferrite magnets tightly woven into a highly textured jacquard fabric with premier wool filling. Washable, antibacterial, hypoallergenic, lightweight and rapidly wicks away moisture. Best of all, you are invited to try this extraordinary mattress pad in your own home, 100% RISK-FREE. The results will astound you!

BREAKTHROUGH HEALTH NEWS

by Lucas Nilsson, Health Correspondent

The remarkable health breakthrough you are about to discover is not a story of exaggerated claims or a futuristic tale of proposed concept and supposition. On the contrary, the product review presented today is supported by the irrefutable laws of science and earthly magnetism. If you are living with chronic pain and discomfort, if you are suffering from soft tissue inflammation . . . arthritis, fibromyalgia, insomnia, stress and many other debilitating disorders, the decision you make in the next few minutes to own the revolutionary Magnetek™ Mattress Pad may be more crucial to your life and well-being, and more beneficial to your long-term health than any decision you have ever made. This is an announcement regarding an advanced product breakthrough; specifically, how the natural power of electromagnetic energy can calm, manage, relieve — even reverse the agonizing physical distress of pain and numerous other ill health conditions.

To Understand The True Miracle Of The Magnetek™ Mattress Pad, You Must First Have A Fundamental Knowledge Of The Awesome Powers Of Electromagnetism!

The human body — male, female, everyone — is composed of billions of living cells. Science has established beyond any doubt that all living cells are electromagnetic by nature. Yet there are only two sources of natural magnetism available to you. Your brain and the Earth.

The human brain has an average of 100 billion neurons (or nerve cells) which are electrically excitable cells that process and transmit information via as many as 1,000 trillion synaptic connections — estimated to be equivalent to a super-computer with a 1 trillion bit per second processor. The Earth, being the other source of magnetism, provides a continuous magnetic field which the human body draws on to support and enhance molecular reactions. Simply put — the human brain and the Earth, both electromagnetically charged, work in a manner of synergistic harmony to enhance chemical reactions within your body.

UNFORTUNATELY . . . according to scientific data, the strength of the Earth’s magnetic field has been decreasing for the last 160 years at an alarming rate. The decline appears to be centered in a huge swath of land extending from Zimbabwe to Chile, although some of the biggest weak spots have sprung up over the Western Hemisphere. Coupled with the Earth’s magnetic field decline, environmental factors and the simple process of physical aging has a broadly negative impact on the brain’s ability to administer a sufficient magnetic field for optimum health and body function. For example, the billions of cells that make up the human body function best at a very low frequency — yet the electromagnetic field that surrounds us at work and at home is flooded with ‘higher frequency’ stimulation generated from modern conveniences such as cell phones, microwave ovens and fluorescent lighting. The resulting toll on the body is seen in cell fatigue and stress . . . invisible perhaps, at first, but over time, becoming more and more evident and expressed in everything from anxiety and allergy symptoms to joint inflammation, arthritis, backache, stressed muscles, poor circulation, fibromyalgia and autoimmune disorders, headaches, migraines, blood pressure irregularities — even insomnia and constant fatigue. Left untreated and unchecked, it only gets worse.

Nature Intended Your Body To Be Robust And Healthy, Free From Suffering And Crippling Pain. The Magnetek™ Mattress Pad Helps Restore Vital Wellness While You Sleep!

How can an innocuous magnetic pad, placed on top of your existing mattress and under your fitted sheet, do so much for restoring, repairing and rejuvenating chronic health disorders and specific ailments and maladies? The answer lies in years of complex scientific research and in the physics of understanding ceramic/ferrite magnet positioning — indeed, the Magnetek™ Mattress Pad has been developed to project a north-pole field along the entire body, working in tandem

Image Of The Earth’s Electromagnetic Field (Elements of this photographic image furnished by NASA.)

The Earth’s magnetic field, shown here by photographic imagery, extends some 600,000 kilometers above the planet’s surface and acts as a giant invisible bubble that shields the planet from deadly cosmic radiation erupting from the sun.

Current scientific data suggests that the magnetic field is weakening at a rate ten times faster than previously documented. Add to this daily electromagnetic radiation factors — “electropollution” — stemming from cell phone usage, microwave ovens and other higher frequency AC (alternating current) fields which continuously stress the body’s fragile cells and create an environment for ill health and assorted ailments. Fortunately, now you can counteract and protect yourself from this declining natural magnetism, this invisible health robber — not by pills and prescription drugs and dangerous opioids. But by sleeping atop a 100% safe, state-of-the-art Magnetek™ Mattress Pad. Ask yourself: Why live in pain and distress any longer, afflicted and suffering — hooked on addictive pharmaceuticals with potential calamitous side effects? This announcement invites you to experience the amazing Magnetek™ Mattress Pad yourself, RISK-FREE, without obligation. Imagine sleeping in blissful peace, awakening each day with boundless vigor and improved health. Pain free, mobile, physically and emotionally strong and energized. Feeling revitalized, rejuvenated, literally turning back the clock . . . hour by hour, day by day . . . health returns, while you rest. Order today!

with the brain’s low frequency negative magnetic field. (Please remember, the human body is organic, predominantly made up of ‘elements.’ 96.2% of our body weight is composed of oxygen, hydrogen, carbon and nitrogen — elements.) The brain is the ultimate control center, firing messages electrically throughout billions of cells every second of every day. If the electromagnetic energy is depleted, health suffers. Pain and other issues of a compromised condition begin to surface and manifest. Nerves flare. Inflammation takes root. Ailments follow.

GREAT NEWS: The Magnetek™ Mattress Pad Is Manufactured On The Principle Of Providing Steady Supplementary Negative (-) Magnet Energy . . . Essential For Total Body Health.

In Japan, China and particularly India, magnetic therapy has been utilized for centuries to speed the healing of broken bones and soft-tissue injuries. It works! Science has shown that magnet therapy can increase blood flow through the capillaries by as much as 400%, resulting in:

- Improved oxygenation of the body.
- Faster, more efficient elimination of toxins.
- Increased ability to lower/stabilize blood pressure.
- Prevention of arterial sclerosis, high cholesterol, stroke and other circulatory problems.

Interestingly, even though the Magnetek™ Mattress Pad miraculously helps relieve pain and other inflammatory disorders, it is not the magnetic field itself that heals; rather, the ferrite magnets housed in the pad energize the tissues in your body, aiding the cells in creating an optimal environment which enables the body to naturally heal itself. Without drugs or side effects. Without injections or dangerous opioids.

Individuals who have tried the Magnetek™ experiment to check functions of kidney, liver, pancreas, blood pressure, and circulatory system. No clinical symptoms were found to suggest any side effects whatsoever. This was conclusive!

Moreover, the renowned doctor Robert O. Becker, M.D., observed that when an injury occurs, the stricken area registers magnetically positive (south pole). Yet after a few hours, the

Each Pad Is Fitted With 49 Ferrite Magnets, 850-1000 Gauss Rating Per Magnet. All Magnets Are Protectively Woven Into A Highly Textured, Raised Jacquard Fabric Containing High Quality Wool Filling. Comfortable, Lightweight, Strong, Breathable.

The Magnetek™ Mattress Pad is specially designed as a negative field sleep pad, constructed to aid individual energy. Each 90x200 cm quilted pad is fitted with 49 ceramic/ferrite magnets tightly sewn and secured to project a proper ‘north-pole’ field along your entire body. This is important! The strategically placed magnets are well-padded to prevent shifting or digging into your skin, yet promote increased blood circulation for pain relief, healing and deep, restful sleep. In addition, each Magnetek™ Mattress Pad features a refreshing aromatherapy bag of lavender and ginkgo directly sewn into the quilted fabric which contains antibacterial properties.

The Magnetek™ Mattress Pad is safe. Each of the 49 ferrite magnets in the pad are rated at 850-1000 gauss; keep in mind that Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) machines routinely expose patients to magnetic fields as high as 15,000 gauss, with no side effects.

Of course, as with any health product or program, you should always consult with your physician first to make sure you are in good overall health. CAUTION: Do not use if wearing a pacemaker, defibrillator, implanted insulin pump or other electro-medical device, or if you are pregnant. Keep magnets away from computer disks, videotapes, video monitors, credit cards and other magnetic media. Do not place pad in direct contact with battery operated watches or directly on computer equipment or television monitors. Your satisfaction is 100% guaranteed or your money back.

Mattress Pad have written letters expressing jubilation with the results. In a double-blind clinical study utilizing magnetic pads with a gauss rating of 750-950 each — an average of 80.27% (more than 8 out of 10) of the test subjects reported positive results in pain relief which included neck, shoulder, upper/lower back, lower limb, plus insomnia and fatigue. And, more than 70% of the group realized positive effects within 5 days. Testing was done before and after the injured site registers negative (north pole). This demonstrates that north pole energy is a sign of healing, whereas south pole energy is a signal of acute injury and pain. Thus, by using a north pole magnet source (the Magnetek™ Mattress Pad) on an injured or inflamed site, the immediate healing process begins. Pain sufferers — arthritis, bursitis, sciatica, fibromyalgia, joints, migraines, insomnia, stress and much more are calling this pad a miracle. Absolutely, it works!
